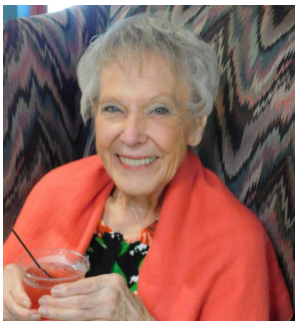
100 Years Young
Naomi Hupp Is Celebrating!

Elmhurst's Naomi Lowe Hupp is celebrating her 100th birthday, October 11.

Naomi, a Moundsville native, has lived at Elmhurst for the past ten years, nine of those with her husband, Henry, who passed away in 2018.

Recently reflecting upon her life, Naomi believes keeping a regular schedule, not unlike a constant beat played on a piano, may be responsible for her longevity. The piano, and music in general, have been a part of her life from the time she was eight. Her grandmother cajoled her into practicing by saying she would do the dishes, Naomi's chore, if she would practice while she did them. Naomi recalled it seemed as though her grandmother "was washing every dish in the house!" (Turn to page 4 for more)

NALW Festivities Filled With Creativity



Melissa Mansuetto displays a lovely holiday wreath up for bid at the auction.

Please Consider a Gift to Elmhurst

Elmhurst sincerely appreciates those that have shared their support of our mission on behalf of older adults over the past 129 years. The generosity of our friends allows Elmhurst, a non-profit, to continue to provide the highest quality care, comfort, and lifestyle.

It's football season, and to win, you've got to have everyone on the team doing their part on the field.

That's exactly why Elmhurst came home with a deficiency–free award during the fall meeting of the WV Assisted Living Association. The award follows our annual inspection by the WV Department of Health and Human Resources, Office of Health Facility Licensure & Certification.

Our staff is a team with one goal - the care and happiness of our residents. Each staff member has a role in scoring a win on behalf of Elmhurst Residents. If you make the team, it is expected that you see that as your goal. At our house, we are a winning team. Thanks to everyone on the Elmhurst team! You are champions!

We had a wonderful assisted living week thanks to our creative activities' team! The culinary staff outdid themselves, too!

Coming up in November is our annual Thanksgiving Appeal. I hope if you like what we do, you will lend your support to Elmhurst, a non-profit for 129 years! Thank you. - Jamie

THIS & THAT

We pampered our nails...We lunched at Happy Garden in Glen Dale...Did an impromptu exercise class with SMPS kids during their evacuation drill...

SEPTEMBER SCRAPBOOK...Creative Pursuits Fill Our Days!

We took the National Assisted Living Week theme of creativity to heart. We made unique collages that formed a quilt. No two squares were the same. Beautiful results!

Creativity Through Music!

Creative Dancers Thrilled Us

Music Therapist Jennifer Hezoucky had everyone engaging in creating music with a variety of unique instruments.

Auction Bidding, Elegant Dinner Equaled A Wonderful Evening!

100 (continued)

Naomi almost met her first husband, Dale Lowe, when she was in high school and he was teaching economics. She opted for a knitting class, instead. Following graduation from Muskingham College she met Dale Lowe. They were married for 48 years, spending the first 30 in Cincinnati where both were educators, he in administration and Naomi as a music supervisor. After her son was born, Naomi went to night school to become certified in early education.

The couple retired to Moundsville to care for her elderly parents. Their son also had a career in higher education.

Together, Naomi and Dale authored a history of Moundsville High School that sold out all 15,000 copies!

Naomi continued to be active in the Marshall County Historical Society following Dale's death. Henry Hupp was also a member. Following the passing of Henry's wife, the couple decided to marry and travel. Her friends surprised the couple with a bridal shower!

Henry and Naomi were named Distinguished West Virginians and Naomi was also named a History Hero!

A Very Happy Birthday, Naomi!
