Easter Festivities

Our annual Easter luncheon was a festive occasion, complete with a visit from Peter Cottontail who treated residents to a bit of chocolate in colorful eggs.

Traditional ham and lamb were on the menu, Delicious!

April Showers Bring Out Crafters

The rains might have been pouring down, but our Spring wreath craft made us sunny. The wreaths now adorn the residents' apartment doors.

Janice Bippus, RN, and I enjoyed the spring WV Assisted Living Assoc. meeting at The Greenbrier in March, despite heavy snow and power outages at the resort. It is always good to meet with our peers. We learn so much from one another and our speakers.

We had a surprise visit from our First Lady, Cathy Justice (pictured). She is delightful and very interested in the assisted living industry in the state.

May 1 is the Amazing Raise 2018. A contribution to Elmhurst of $10 or more would be much appreciated. Info on page 3.

PHIPPS

Residents Shirley Milton, Emily Shrut, and Ila McConaughey joined Jamie Crow and Melissa Mansuetto on a day trip to Phipps Conservatory in Pittsburgh to see the flowers. Sarris Candy was the last stop for some sweet treats.

Chips & Dip Day Fun

We celebrated Chips Day by tasting 11 dips and voting for our favorites. Staff members made a variety of flavorful dips.

March Scrapbook. . . Music & Magic

It Was Magic

Magician David Charvat and his assistant, Deena, amazed us with his magic show. The Amazing Splendini truly amazed us!

Music Was In The Air

We had a full house when our favorite accordionist, Rick Pastre, presented a wonderful afternoon.

We Welcome Our New Resident

Maureen Comiskey

THANK YOU VERY MUCH
Many thanks to Mary Kay Laughlin of Family Hair Care for donating boxed figurine gift items to Elmhurst. It was very thoughtful.

St. Patrick's Day was filled with a wee bit of the Irish in menu and attire. Jamie Crow and Ruth Vensel admire the dessert (who is that leprechaun?). Jan Carenbauer wore shamrocks.

Table-Side Specialty Omelets at Breakfast

Our early risers breakfast residents enjoyed delicious custom omelets cooked table-side. Thanks, Chef Travis.
