Halloween Was a Spooky Treat for All Ages!

Halloween is always a good time for spooky fun, especially when our T-K students from St. Michael Parish School visit us in their costumes.

Our Halloween party was great super fun. We loved the unique costumes our residents shared. The bubbling witch's brew and cookies were delicious, too!

St. Mike's T-K Halloween visit was super. Pictured from let to right are residents Patsy Fish, Ila McConaughey, Phyl Kosar, Marcie Porter, and Blanche Wakim.

Thursday, Nov. 14 - 6-8 p.m. Annual Holiday Vendor Sale

Jamie's Corner

Jamie Crow Executive Director

Thanksgiving is a special time for me to thank everyone who is a friend of Elmhurst.

The joy at welcoming five new residents in October was a time to say "thanks" for choosing Elmhurst to call "home."

We're thankful for families, near and far, who take comfort in knowing their loved ones are enjoying the best life has to offer at Elmhurst.

We're also thankful for those who supported our annual Shrimp Boil

Our annual Thanksgiving Appeal will soon appear in the mail. Historically, we've enjoyed the support of the community in our mission as a non-profit, caring for older adults for 128 years. Thank you to all who contribute in 2018.

Finally, our holiday calendar is full of fantastic events, especially the Holiday Vendor Sale Nov. 14, the Eggnog Party Dec. 2, and the Victorian Christmas Tour Dec. 8. Hope to see you to say thanks for joining us.

Getting to Know

Many a young boy has dreams of playing major league baseball. For Elmhurst's Pete Newmyer it nearly came true.

Pete, a product of the old Triadelphia High School, loves baseball and math. He had a two-week tryout with a minor league team for the Kansas City Royals. Despite not making the roster, Pete's love of baseball never wavered.

His favorite book is about the legendary Lou Gehrig and his role model is Stan Musial, St. Louis Cardinals' great. Pete's dad played summer pro ball with Musial. Pete says he was "a great guy."

Pete and his son continue to operate the Elm Terrace Shopping Center started by his father.

Of Elmhurst, Pete says he loves the food, especially after cooking for himself for five years after his wife died. Pete also loves playing the giant Connect Four games he donated for the enjoyment of his fellow residents.

Thanks, Pete!
