Jamie's Corner

Jamie Crow, Executive Director

Dear Friends,

I love connecting with our residents, family and friends through the newsletter each month. It's where we share all the good things that we experience, monthly.

This month we look forward to celebrating National Assisted Living Week September 10-16 for a "Season of Reflection". It provides an opportunity for residents, their loved ones, staff, and the surrounding communities to celebrate the individuals they serve and to educate members of the public about assisted living.

We end the week with our Open House from 1-3 p.m. on September 16. Happy Fall!

- Jamie

Elmhurst Receives 2023 Deficiency-Free Rating

We're pleased to announce we have again received a deficiency-free rating following our state regulatory agency Health Survey and Environmental Survey in 2023. "We are extremely proud of our rating from the DHHR and OFLAC as this supports our efforts to provide the very finest assisted living residents and care for our residents," commented Jamie Crow, executive director. Elmhurst continues to provide 133 years of superior care for older adults which is a testament to our longevity and reputation.
